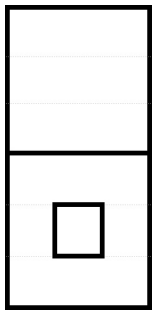
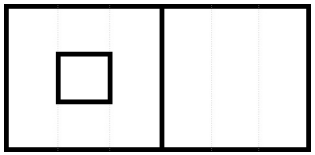
Uniting into One
Same Person





SPIRITUALLY UNITING: SUN AND SKY, AGREEING

When I am light casting, sky being;

Then I am fire and sky rising together in agreement.

Inside, I am expanding toward heaven's leading impulse (distinguishing and shedding light on what is the same and what is different and never losing the method of putting each thing into its proper place); and Outside, I am growing the roots of earth's heavenly yield (distinguishing every thing by whether it is noble or small-minded, good or bad, right or wrong, and whether it should be aligned with or explained as improper).
